

The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

8 February

Bob Gates -

Admiral Inman asked me to check with you to see if you think this is something he should support?

Would you like to name someone else to attend?

Admiral B.R. Inman
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Inman:

The International Public Policy Foundation (IPPF) cordially invites you to be a speaker at a conference it is sponsoring, "The Transfer of Technology and East-West Trade." The conference will be held on March 4, 1982, in the Wadsworth Room of the International Club, 1800 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Several key officials of the Reagan Administration, members of Congress, academics, labor and industrial executives will be invited to the conference. Extensive media coverage is anticipated.

The conference begins with presentations from 10:00 to 11:45 A.M. Each presentation will be followed by a 15-minute question and answer session. The conference luncheon is scheduled from 11:45 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. Starting at 12:30 P.M. a keynote speaker will make a 15-minute presentation on the technology transfer issue. The afternoon speaker session will extend from approximately 1:00 to 3:00 P.M.

Any questions concerning the conference may be directed to Mark Brown, Conference Coordinator, at (703) 893-4840. Indication of selected topic and, if possible, written text of presentation sent to Mark Brown would be appreciated. Please advise us by February 12, 1982 if you will be available to speak in either the morning or afternoon sessions, so that we can proceed with our conference plans.

Sincerely,

Mike Daniels
